Cheetah cubs egg-cited by special Easter treats

WHIPSNADDE Zoo's six cheeky cheetah cubs have had a cracking good time after receiving gifts to celebrate their first Easter.

Painted "eggs" filled with meaty treats were scattered in the Zoo's Cheetah Rock enclosure to form part of the sextuplet's enrichment activities, stimulating their natural curiosity and making them work for the tasty food inside.

Head of Africa section, Mark Holden, said: "As it's their first Easter we wanted to do something special for cheetah cubs."

"All six of them are really inquisitive by nature and love investigating new things."

"Their specially made eggs will spark their curiosity and playful natures as they work out how to reach their tasty food."

The 10-month-old cubs are the second litter of Northern cheetah to be born at ZSL Whipsnade Zoo and are providing a valuable rearing experience for mum, Dubai, of this endangered species.

They were born two years after Dubai gave birth to her first cubs, which were the very first litter of Northern cheetah cubs ever born in the UK.

ZSL Whipsnade Zoo's meerkats also enjoyed a special Easter treat, as they were given colourful eggs to roll around their sandy terrain.

Bus e-petition rejected

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN ELECTRONIC petition containing the signatures of more than 1,300 parents who are campaigning to save bus services to faith schools, has been thrown out by Luton Borough Council.

Although the petition, which was started by the 'Cardinal Newman School-Protect Our School Transport Committee', (CNS POST) has way over the 500 signatures needed to force a debate on the issue in the town hall, council officials have said the document is invalid as it does not contain the addresses of those backing it.

This comes after a weekend of action from the group, which involved mass drives to and from Cardinal Newman High School on Monday to show the impact extra traffic would have on the A6, should the funding for the free school buses be axed.

This was followed by a well-attended protest outside the Town Hall, where the parents managed to arrange a meeting with authority leader Hazel Simmons, which has been scheduled for Wednesday, April 17 at 7pm in the school.

CNS POST committee leader, Antonette Kotula said: "We are very upset to hear that the e-petition won't be accepted, and think that it is incredibly petty."

"The amount of signatures received shows the real strength of feeling on the matter across the board."

"We will be returning to the council offices on Tuesday with a paper petition containing addresses, which we hope they will accept."

Supporting the committee, Liberal Democrat councillor Martin Pantling said: "It would seem the needs of Luton residents only really apply if this suits the council and does not bring adverse criticism."

"Given everything that Luton Labour said in opposition about a much more moderate proposal to share costs on school buses, and the ill-tempered tone and slurs they resorted to at the time, people are bound to see it as both cynical and hypocritical that they are now trying to avoid a council debate on the issue by not even wanting to accept a huge petition on the matter."

However, a spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "The council welcomes petitions and recognises they are one way in which people can raise their concerns."

"We informed the CNS Post committee last week that we would not be able to accept their e-petition because it did not display the addresses of the people who had signed the petition and therefore we would not be in a position to validate it, as only those living or working in Luton would be eligible to sign the petition."

"We have been informed that they have a paper petition with over 600 signatures and have written to them confirming that if we receive the paper petition at the Town Hall early next week and provided it meets the criteria set out in the petition scheme, which was sent to them on Sunday, March 17, we will endeavour to process it in time for inclusion in the agenda for the Full Council meeting to be held on Tuesday, April 16 2013."

£100k fraudster jailed for bogus benefit claims

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN who falsely claimed more than £100,000 in payments from authorities including Central Bedfordshire Council, has been sentenced to 30 months in prison.

Kelvin Arnold Kallou, 35, of Tithe Farm Road, Dunstable, had claimed he was partially sighted and permanently disabled as the result of a car crash, but an investigation discovered him driving three different vehicles, walking unaided and working in Watford Market.

Kallou was unanimously convicted in December 2012 of ten counts regarding fraud carried out against Brent Council and Central Bedfordshire Council between 2002 and 2010. The court heard on Wednesday, March 27, that in total the amount he claimed came to £106,687.40. The investigation and prosecution were undertaken and led by Brent Council which also worked on behalf of Central Beds to deal with the fraud within a single prosecution.

Surveillance undertaken by the authority's investigation team was critical to the success of the prosecution, as Kallou was seen to be walking unaided then, when attending council offices, to be requiring crutches.

The footage also showed him driving three vehicles and working at his family business in Watford Market without any aids or apparent issues with his sight.

Enquiries proved that between 2002 and 2008 Kallou claimed around £70,000. He also made a simultaneous claim from Central Bedfordshire Council, where he was actually living, from 2002 to 2006 and received around £27,000.

He failed to disclose to either authority that he was related to his carer, who was his wife, that he had income and, at times, up to four properties. Kallou made a further fraudulent claim to Central Bedfordshire Council in 2009 for around £5,700.

Despite maintaining his innocence throughout the trial, the jury returned unanimous verdicts on ten counts of fraud.

Councillor Maurice Jones, executive member for resources at Central Bedfordshire Council, said: "I welcome the sentence against Mr Kallou.

"What this case and our joint working with Brent Council demonstrate is that we will do everything in our power to prosecute anyone who seeks to line their own pockets at the expense of the tax payer and those in need."

Charity group announces closure of operations

A COMMUNITY organisation is set to shut down its operations after running into financial problems.

Voluntary Action Luton (VAL), which supports more than 400 voluntary and community groups in the town, has announced on its website that it will cease operating. No date has been set yet for its closure.

The news comes as other charity organisations in the town face an uncertain financial future as a result of reduced funding.

In February this year Luton on Sunday revealed that LAMP, a charity that helps homeless people aged between 16-25 find housing, was facing closure after losing 75 per cent of the funding it receives from Luton Council.

A statement posted on VAL's website said: "The Board of Trustees would like to thank all members, stakeholders, volunteers and supporters of Voluntary Action Luton for the past forty years for your tremendous support throughout numerous difficult periods."

IRISH FORUM TO CONTROL PROJECT

HEALTHWATCH Luton is set to become the independent voice for local people on all aspects of health and social care services.

Local charity the Luton Irish Forum (LIF) was awarded the Healthwatch contract by the council after a competitive tendering process.

From Monday, April 1 LIF will begin their new role as local watchdog group for patients, service users, carers and the public.

Pam Garraway, Corporate Director for Housing and Community Living, said: "Luton Irish Forum was selected as they were best placed to ensure that residents' voices are heard - including some of the most hard to reach groups in our communities."

'DISINTEGRATING' ROAD TO BE FIXED

WORKS to fix potholes on a stretch of road in Houghton Regis are now underway.

Just this week, we were contacted by a resident who said that the High Street near the new Morrisons store appeared to be 'disintegrating'.

Cllr Brian Spurr, executive member for sustainable communities, said: "Contractors are currently working on behalf of Morrisons on this stretch of road.

"They did some temporary fixes on Thursday to make the road safe before the Easter break.

"The whole length of road from the old Morrisons to the Tithe Farm Road, and into Bedford Road, will later be resurfaced.

"This work is currently scheduled in to take place in May."

SAVE THE DATE FOR PICNIC FUN

PLANS are already underway for the annual popular family fun day, Picnic in the Park, which will take place in Wardown Park in Luton.

Co-hosted by the authority's Family Information Service and Pre-School Learning Alliance, the event will take place on Wednesday, June 26, and will be attended by over 100 Early Years providers and organisations.

A programme of fun activities targeted to the under-fives has been organised, which will include craft activities, face painting, story time, and children's theatre.

Help decide how £1m cash is spent

RESIDENTS in Farley Hill are being urged to get involved in choosing how £1m of funding from the National Lottery is spent.

The money was awarded to the neighbourhood in Luton in December, to help completely transform the area.

Now, the community have been asked to come together to discuss how this should happen. The first meeting took place on Wednesday evening at Farley Community Centre, where residents discussed how to promote the project.

Farley ward councillor, Sian Timoney, who was at the event said: "There have been no decisions made yet on what the cash will be spent on, it could be a big project over two years or a longer scheme over ten years."

"The most important thing is that everybody has the opportunity to give and share their opinion. It is not down to the councillors, we will be taking a step back."

Debbie Ladds, chief executive at Local

Trust, said: "We look forward to helping residents identify what matters most to them and how, with the support of a range of locally trusted organisations and our partners, we can support them over at least 10 years make their areas even better places to live."

The next meeting of Farley Big Local will take place on Monday, April 8 at 6.30pm at Farley Community Centre.

Surjeet, 68, is on his feet to fulfil marathon dream

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

RUNNING the London Marathon to help raise cash for Diabetes UK is just another challenge for a keen fundraiser.

Surjeet Sooin, 68, of Handcross Road, (pictured) has been living with Type 2 diabetes for the last 18 years and is a veteran fundraiser and campaigner for the charity.

As chairman of the Luton Diabetes UK Voluntary Group, Surjeet has previously been to Everest Base camp in Nepal, and has also completed the Three Peaks Challenge three times.

Surjeet, who works as an accountant in the town, hopes to raise £2,000 and is already well on target thanks to the efforts of his family and friends.

He said: "I have a real passion for walking but my lifetime ambition was to complete the London Marathon."

"I'm not aiming for a fast time and will probably walk, run and jog my way round but I can't wait. I wanted to complete it while I still could."

"Anything which helps to raise awareness and funds for diabetes is so important."

Sharon Roberts, Diabetes UK Regional

Manager for the Eastern region, said: "The London Marathon is a very tough challenge, and requires a huge amount of dedication, time and commitment."

"We are very grateful for Surjeet's fundraising efforts, and the money he raises will go a long way in helping us continue to make better for the 3.8 million people in the UK with diabetes, and the 7 million people at high risk."

Not satisfied with the London Marathon Surjeet will continue his fundraising efforts in September when he takes part in the Great North Run.

Group 'happy' with college's latest plan

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

PLANS by a college to build a three-storey building have been approved by the council.

Barnfield College (pictured) wants to construct a 'Creative Industries' department with facilities including a fashion studio, theatre space and TV/radio studios on its New Bedford Road site.

And during a meeting on Wednesday night councillors passed the proposals with a number of conditions attached, including a cap on the total number of students and staff allowed and procedures surrounding future expansion.

Last year the college withdrew an application to sell green space at the site for a development including a new 508-pupil primary school, an 88-bed care home, a dependency unit and housing.

The application had drawn fierce opposition from local residents and the Barnfield Development Action Group (BDAG).

During the meeting the group's chairman, David Logan, spoke about the importance of the council's conditions and he was supported by Liberal Democrat councillor Martin Pantling.

After the meeting Cllr Pantling said: "Residents are much more satisfied at what was agreed because it does not have the controversial factors that were in the last plan."

A spokesman for BDAG said: "We did not oppose the plan for a new building. That didn't stop us ensuring all the right questions were asked."

"We are very happy that these plans are clearly limited and the council is imposing conditions which protect the area, especially the impact on traffic."

Wardown Park bridge will cost over £200k to repair

AN authority will be applying to the Heritage Lottery Grant Fund for money to pay for repairs to a bridge.

The suspension bridge in Wardown Park, Luton, (pictured) was closed last July after it was decided that it was no longer safe. A surveyor has since estimated that the required works will cost around £200,000 to complete.

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "An inspection by the council's surveyors revealed the bridge needs repairs to its piers, timber beams, bolts and cable connections."

"We appreciate that this bridge is an important feature and for residents so we will be applying to the Heritage Lottery Grant Fund and investigating other funding sources."

Ambulance Trust set to be split up

BY KATHRYN CAIN

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

ALMOST seven years after three former ambulance services merged into one, it has been revealed they are to be separated once again in order to improve on failing standards.

As part of the action plan presented to the Care Quality Commission on Wednesday following a damning report last week, the East of England Ambulance Service Trust is to create three new 'sector leads' for Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire, Suffolk and Norfolk, and Essex to be managed distinctly from one another.

The news came just hours after chairwoman of the ambulance service, Maria Ball, resigned after holding the post for five years. The process for appointing a new or interim chairman was started immediately but in the meantime Paul Remington, who is vice chairman, will lead the organisation.

Mr Remington said: "Maria has spent many years leading the ambulance service and I would like to thank her for her commitment through challenging times.

"We now must concentrate on looking forward and focusing solely on how we improve our service to patients and better support our staff.

The report by the CQC found that ambulance response times had deteriorated since its last inspection and people could not be assured they would receive care in a timely manner.

A spokesman for the Trust said: "The inspectors gave very positive feedback about the care our staff give, and our action plan encompasses a range of things to enhance that and improve on areas we know need action."

nity based work. If you are interested, send a CV and cover letter, outlining why you would like to take part to applications@gavinshuker.org by Sunday, April 28.

All candidates must be aged 18-24 and available for every weekday and the final weekend for the duration of the scheme.

Inner ring road project given the green light

IMPROVEMENTS to Luton town centre road networks will start this year, as final approval for the plans was given.

On Thursday, Local Transport Minister Norman Baker approved the plans and £15.9m worth of funding from the government towards the £24.1m project.

The scheme will see Luton Borough Council construct a link road to complete the Inner Ring Road in an effort to change traffic circulation around the town centre.

Norman Baker said: "This important scheme will help to reduce congestion on the road network and help regenerate the town and encourage economic growth.

"It will improve public transport facilities and improve accessibility for pedestrians and cyclists."

Work can now start on construction with the project scheduled to complete in August 2014.

Mall's late gamble on casino plan rejected

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LATE application for a small casino in the town centre has been rejected by Luton Council.

The decision was made on Wednesday morning by councillors who met to discuss a joint-bid by The Mall Ltd Partnership and SREIT Property Ltd.

They were applying to open a casino in the Galaxy Centre.

Last week Luton on Sunday reported that the council had received the application on February 27, more than three months after its closing date for licence requests on November 9 last year.

The authority was awarded a small casino licence in 2008 and under the Gambling Act 2005, it is allowed to consider late applications at its own discretion.

REFUSED: The late application was for a small casino at the Galaxy Centre

A council spokeswoman said: "Members were advised that they had a discretion to allow the application and were told at the meeting that the venue was the Galaxy Centre. However, having heard the details of the impact on the process, the potential for unfairness on the existing applicants and the reasons given by the Applicant as to why the application was late, they decided to reject the application."

Worries over Olly's selection

SIR - Many congratulations to our Chief Constable Alf Hitchcock on his new job as Chief Constable of the MOD Police.

I'm sure I speak for Bedfordshire when I say we will be sorry to see him go.

But we're not just sorry to lose such an able and well respected police chief - we're sorry, too, because it means that our four-months old commissioner, Mr Six-Percent Martins, now has a free hand to appoint his own hand-picked replacement; and we've already seen the sort of hand-picking he gets up to.

Worse still, the job of Assistant Chief Constable is also vacant.

So, this time, can we expect these powerful posts to be publicised with properly circulated advertisements and selections being made openly and transparently on merit?

Or will we wake up one morning to find that two more of Mr Martins' friends have been magically parachuted in to join his 'Ollygarchy'?

It is tempting to hope that Mr Martins will have learnt from his previous blunders but don't hold your breath.

He is foremost a politician and to his breed power is everything.

For some revealing clues to what we might expect look no further than the characters he picked for his Deputy and Assistant.

Ron Turvey,
Stanmore Crescent, Luton

Save Newman school buses

SIR - I am writing with regards to the proposed cut of Cardinal Newman High School's bus funding.

I believe that this is a shameful cut, especially from a Labour Council, when Labour traditionally support state subsidised amenities.

The bus service was supposed to be subsidised indefinitely, and if the council can so easily revoke this covenant how can we trust any promise made by this authority.

One of my main gripes is that the cuts are being proposed by what to me are outsiders of the Luton community. The driving forces behind these cuts are Hazel Simmons and Tom Shaw, who are not from Luton. I am sure that if they were, they would understand the importance of Cardinal Newman to the community.

Seeing as the council can so easily single out the Catholic community and our right to educate our children with a Catholic ethos, I urge all Luton Catholics to refuse to vote for any of those supporting these cuts.

Moreover I would like to ask Gavin Shuker as a fellow Christian to come out and support a right for religious education, that is within the boundaries set out by the council.

Jordon Carroll,
Wigmore, Luton

Town needs more industry

SIR - I can't believe it's been 11-years since Vauxhall Motors closed down, leaving Luton with no major industry to its name.

They said that they had great plans for the old site, but as yet no building work has started.

Just a name. Napier Park.

Luton always seems to lag behind the rest of the country.

Maybe they are just saving the ground for a car park, for the expansion of Luton airport.

That should please the people of Harpenden.

John Tucker,
Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

Can you trace Grandfather?

SIR - I wonder whether any of your readers will be able to help trace my relation.

My grandfather was Albert Cook, born in Kensworth on August 13, 1849. No one ever talked about my grandfather and I don't even know what he looked like.

He was a master baker, and on the 1871 census he was unmarried, living at 54 Alma Street, Luton, as a boarder with Elizabeth Puddephatt, who was married but working as a baker, and her two children.

In 1881 he was at the same address, now apparently the owner-occupier of the bakery business, and married to Sarah Gurney who he married in London in 1873.

I would dearly like to know what Albert looked like.

I wondered if there might be a photograph of him outside his shop, as it was quite common for people to have their photos taken outside their shops.

If any of your readers could help me trace any descendants, or if anyone has any old photos of bakers in Luton, I would be most grateful.

GIVE me your tired, your huddled masses yearning to be free.

This inscription is on the Statue of Liberty and appealed to migrants from Europe and later across the world to start a new life in the USA.

The appeal was not simply altruistic, as immigrants helped make the US what it is today. In return for the freedom offered they worked hard, and cheaply, to build the country into the richest the world has ever seen. They were given the chance to get on and many of them did just that. If, however, such an inscription was to be placed on an English statue, someone would have to chisel the word 'Don't' in front of it.

I may be in a small minority but I have found the desire of the main political parties to try and outdo each other in the 'let's see who can be the toughest on immigrants' game, rather distasteful.

The reality is, as the reality has always been, that most immigrants work harder than the indigenous population, for less money, doing jobs we don't want to do.

Often, as we have reported in the past, they have been ripped off by British employers, believing they have to just shut up and take it.

Immigrants from different parts of the world have also

Immigrants are a gain not a drain

added to the great diversity of life our towns and cities now enjoy. They would no doubt add to the diversity of the countryside as well, if they were allowed in. I am aware that the mainstream political parties are worried by UKIP, and that, in times of austerity it is historically the outsiders who get blamed for everything but could we not at least recognise how this country has benefited greatly from the immigrant population.

And maybe they should take UKIP on with their half-truths and smears, rather than accepting their xenophobic agenda.

Instead of bashing them, which is undoubtedly populist, perhaps they could proclaim that this is still a country in which people want to come and build new lives. It might also be worth considering what state our economy and many of our public services would be in without their endeavours.

But, as with so much these days, and especially politics, perception is much more powerful than reality.

IHAVE been trying not to return to the subject of Global Warming but I just can't keep it all in.

You may not have noticed but it has been freezing lately.

I love science, and have great respect for both scientists and the rigour they apply to their experiments before coming to a conclusion. Test to destruction is the motto. Except for Global Warming, where it seems to be make the facts fit the theory.

Due to too much carbon clogging up the atmosphere, Global Warming will heat up the planet, is the theory. The only answer is to return to a pre-industrial age, where we live in harmony in nature. Or freeze to death. Because it is getting colder. Ah, yes that is because Global Warming will make it colder. In that case should we not change the name? Good idea. Climate Change will heat the planet, apart from the bits it will make colder.

So we can categorically say it will get hotter or colder and wetter or drier.

Take a trip into the past with records

OUR lives produce so many documents – birth certificates, school reports, business papers, photographs and community newsletters.

Some of these will become historically important, but need care if they are to continue to provide information for generations to come.

In 1913, Bedfordshire became the first county to establish a Record Office to bring together local records, preserve them for the future and make them available for everyone.

Now 100 years old, the Bedfordshire and Luton Archives Service has arranged a number of events to mark their centenary year, and showcase their collections.

Part of the celebratory programme is 'One For the Record', a newly-opened exhibition in Wardown Park Museum, Luton, which tells the story of the record office, as well as providing various local documents from the past.

Reading excerpts from the jail register and police conduct book from 1900 provides a fascinating insight into just how much things have changed

Bedfordshire was the first county in England to have a public records office. Founded in 1913, it set the standard for local record offices throughout the country. Our reporter, LAUREN ARCHELL, visited an exhibition which celebrates 100 years of the fascinating service.

over the past 100 or so years.

But equally as interesting are the smaller documents - those they we wouldn't think twice about throwing away today.

One exhibit shows the receipt from Luton choir's outing to Madame Tussauds in September 1895, which includes the price of the group's railway fare and admission to the attraction.

Over a century later, it is incredible to think that Madame Tussauds is still as popular as it was then (although the cost of the trip with train journeys has definitely increased!)

Another item that caught by eye was a doctor's bill from Caddington in 1822.

On closer inspection, the receipt mentions a specific operation of trephining on a young boy - a procedure which involved drilling a hole in the skull in the belief that it would release pressure on the brain.

I'm sure I'm not the only one that is glad that drills are no longer part of a routine visit to the doctors

The 'One For the Record' exhibition will be at the Wardown Park Museum until Sunday, June 23.

Man admits to finding stolen scooter 'in bush'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN has admitted being in possession of a stolen scooter.

Lee Mitchell, of Eskdale, Luton, pleaded guilty to theft by finding after police caught him with the Peugeot 50cc scooter on March 13.

Last week Luton on Sunday reported how the £1,300 vehicle had gone missing on March 9 from the property of Peggy Hill (pictured with partner Nigel Moss far right) in Hart Hill Drive, Luton.

The court heard how police officers had found Mr Mitchell with the scooter at 10pm on Austin Road, Luton.

He told them he had previously owned a scooter which had been stolen and that he had found the Peugeot in some bushes while walking through Wardown Park.

One of the letters on the licence plate had been changed. Mitchell also told the police he had drunk about eight cans of lager that day.

Before sentencing, the judge told him 'we have given you full credit for the early guilty plea'.

Mitchell, whose last conviction was in summer last year, was given a 12-month conditional discharge and warned about his future conduct.

He was also ordered to pay £85 prosecution costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

Would-be robbers leave their victim bruised

A MAN has suffered bruising to his ribs after being pushed and shoved during an attempted robbery.

The 21-year-old was walking through People's Park on a foot-path between Kingston Road and Sunridge Avenue, Luton, on Monday, March 18 when he was approached by two men.

They began pushing him before demanding that he hand over his wallet.

The 21-year-old refused and the men left towards Havelock Road empty handed.

Both men are described of being of Asian appearance and were wearing dark hooded tops with scarves covering their faces.

If you have information relating this crime you can contact DC Cunningham, in confidence, on 01582 394373 or Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Visit a living place of Spring is almost here and the trees are full of buds about to burst so what better time to celebrate one of the country's most unusual cathedrals, hidden away in a corner of Bedfordshire.

THE Tree Cathedral in Whipsnade is a living place of worship created more than 70 years ago.

It is a collection of trees, hedges and shrubs in the plan of a full size medieval cathedral complete with nave, transepts, chapels and cloister gardens.

This incredible creation, set in 9.5 acres of land, was the idea of Edmund Kell Blyth who created it after the First World War in the spirit of 'faith, hope and reconciliation' and as a memorial to friends and fellow soldiers, Arthur Bailey, John Bennett and Francis Holland who he had met as a cadet at Sandhurst in 1916. All three were all killed prior to the end of the war.

After the war Edmund Blyth joined the family firm of solicitors in London but decided to make his home in Whipsnade.

Partly inspired by a visit to the new Anglican Cathedral in Liverpool, it was as he drove home through the countryside that an idea formed of building a cathedral with trees.

He said: "I saw the evening sun light up a coppice of trees on the side of a hill.

"It occurred to me then that here was something more beautiful still and the idea formed of building a cathedral with trees". In 1932 he began by planting in a field where he had formerly kept his chickens.

First he planted the nave that now forms the north and south transepts, followed in 1933 by two chapels.

The Easter Chapel was constructed of Cherry trees in the form of a square and Winter Chapel planted in the shape of a star with Norway spruce, the traditional Christmas tree.

In 1935 he planted Silver Birch to form the main sanctuary and high altar at the end of the nave. During the same year he added a Summer Chapel of Elms and an Autumn Chapel of Beech trees. In 1938 a dew pond was built to form the centre of a cloister walk which was surrounded by Poplars, Scotch Pine, Silver Birch and Ash.

The whole scheme was completed just as the Second World War broke out in 1939.

The first services were held in 1953 and the ownership of the cathedral was accepted by the National Trust in 1960 and is today administered by the Trustees of Whipsnade Tree Cathedral Fund.

Edmund Blyth died in 1968 and his son continued to lead the trustees in the maintenance until his death in 1978. The Whipsnade Tree

Ethnic groups urged to consider donation

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE lack of organ donation among minority groups was highlighted at a campaign aimed at raising awareness.

More than 70 people from different ethnic and faith communities attended the event held in collaboration with the Luton Community Health Forum.

Donor families, transplant recipients and leaders of black, Asian and minority ethnic (BAME) communities joined University of Bedfordshire's Professor of Diversity in Public Health, Gurch Randhawa, at the launch of the Community Organ Donation Campaign at Dallow Learning Community Centre. People from BAME communities are more susceptible to kidney problems caused by diabetes and high blood pressure but nearly 70 per cent of BAME families in the UK refuse consent to donate organs.

from left) said: "This large shortfall in suitable organs can mean that BAME patients can wait much longer for transplants and are more likely to die waiting."

"This underlines the need for greater engagement with BAME communities to increase awareness and donations and prevent the conditions that lead to organ failure."

Among the guests was Bedfordshire graduate Otilie Quince, who received a kidney from her mother in 2007 and has competed at national and international transplant games.

She was joined by Bobby Mudhar, whose family donated his brother Mandip's organs after he was killed in a road traffic accident.

Authority hails cooking oil recycling scheme

RESIDENTS recycled more than 2,650 litres of used cooking oil at household waste recycling centres last year, according to Luton Borough Council.

Oil collection tanks were installed at the Eaton Green Road and Progress Way centres by Living Fuel as part of a scheme to help create clean electricity.

The used cooking oil was converted into a new green form of fuel, with just one litre of oil able to produce enough electricity to make 240 cups of tea.

Shaun Askins, strategic waste manager at the council, said: "The energy we have created by recycling used cooking oil is enough to power almost three average households for a year.

"Not only are the environmental benefits brilliant, but the centres also provide a really easy place for residents to get rid of their cooking oil waste."

Pitching in to help budding retailers

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO free pitches have been made available in Luton's Market in the Mall, to encourage aspiring entrepreneurs to start up a stall.

Through a scheme called First Pitch, small businesses owners of the future can trade on the market for up to 12 months at discounted rent and are given personalised support from the National Market Traders Federation (NMTF).

Joe Harrison, Chief Executive of the NMTF, said: "Many of our well-known brands started life on the markets and we know many people want to take that leap into starting their own business – First Pitch will give you the support you need to bring a product or service to the market. If you're selected as a finalist, you are given free membership of the NMTF, a free copy of a market trader training guide and a mentor, someone who has a wealth of business and market trading experience."

Dave Gibbs, manager of Luton's Market in the Mall said: "Faced with spiralling bills, shoppers are searching for better deals in a town centre market. It's nice to see our market starting to enjoy a renaissance – back to the days when it was the heart of the community.

First Pitch is open to UK residents over 16 with less than six months experience of market trading.

Interested applicants need to apply by 19th April via www.nmtf.co.uk.

New phone technology goes live across town

SUPERFAST 4G from EE was launched this week in Luton, offering residents mobile speeds up to five times faster than 3G.

EE is the new 4G brand, and the company that runs the Orange and T-Mobile brands in the UK, A new store in The Mall, will offer the mobile and fibre broadband services to customers.

Dean Humphrey,

Regional Manager for Luton, EE, said: "The arrival of superfast 4G mobile is great news for residents and businesses in the area.

"I'm delighted that we're getting access to 4G so soon after the launch of the service.

"A lot of mobile users with devices like the Apple iPhone 5 will now be able to upgrade to 4GEE and get the most out of their phone."

Enchanted Entertainment, producers of many popular family theatre shows nationwide, are planning another theatrical spectacular.

quality professional performers including Dani, who also reached the Strictly Come Dancing final recently.

The show's producer Jez Weatherall, said: "We're really looking forward to coming to Dunstable during the Easter holidays with this fantastic show."

"It's got a great cast of TV stars and an amazing live band. We know how popular our Christmas pantomimes are across the UK and we're now hoping to give audiences another quality family event during the year."

Animals friends help Nessie the elephant's bid to be a bridesmaid

THEATRE

THE ELEPHANT BRIDESMAID

Harpندن Public Halls

Sunday, April 21, 2.30pm

WRITTEN especially for parents to enjoy with their children, The Elephant Bridesmaid is a magical musical about weddings and wombats and the loveliest elephant the world has ever known.

So join Nessie the Elephant and her fantastic animal friends and help them as they go in search of an outfit fancy enough (and large enough) to make her the Australian jungle's first and most beautiful elephant bridesmaid.

And if you like, you can make your day even more special and come to the theatre wearing your own fancy clothes (or fancy dress) for the chance to take part in a fabulous fashion show live on stage with the actors.

The show is based on a story from the best selling book How The Koala Learnt To Hug and Other Australian Fairytales, this most charming of shows has just the right balance of games, songs and heart warming elephant antics to make any day feel like your special day.

As an extra treat the popular children's author Steven Lee, who is behind the tales, will be available to sign copies of his book which will be on sale at a specially reduced rate after the show.

The production is suitable for all between the ages of four and 104.

Tickets cost £8.50 for adults and £6.50 for children. A family of four can watch the show for £25.

Tickets are on sale from the Harpenden Public Halls Box Office. To book, call 01582 767525.

Stockwood offers a rare taste of the UK countryside

WHAT'S ON

STOCKWOOD COUNTRY FAIR

Stockwood Discovery Centre
Today & tomorrow, 11am-4.30pm

THIS year's fair at Stockwood Discovery Centre promises a real taste of the countryside this Easter.

The family-friendly event has something for everyone from archery and animal encounters to fresh eggs, breads and pies at the farmers' market.

Creative craft stalls offer visitors a shopping experience with a difference; unique, hand-made jewellery, art and knitwear are certain to make perfect gifts and treats for any occasion.

Families will be able to experience the sights, sounds and feel of the farm as a mobile one visits Stockwood Country Fair.

Those seeking excitement over the bank holiday weekend will be amazed by a falconry experience, including demonstrations from owls, falcons and hawks, and a chance to meet some of the beautiful birds. Children will be encouraged to get involved with pony rides, Easter craft activities, trails and face painting.

Beekeeping demonstrations, rural life re-enactments and much more will also be taking place on-site over the two day event.

Food will be available to purchase from the barbecue or in the Garden Café.

There is plenty of free parking on site.

Tickets can be purchased on the day. They are £3.50 for adults, £2.50 for children and £3 for concessions.

Film buff eyes new releases

FILM ROUND-UP

■ This weekend our resident film expert Gavin Miller gives you the low down on the latest big movie releases coming out for Easter:

G.I. JOE: RETALIATION (12A):

The lacklustre original didn't seem to win many critical admirers, but it took enough box-office wonga for Dwayne Johnson and Bruce Willis (pictured) to jump on board for the sequel. It was even delayed from last summer to cash-in on a 3D conversion as they join Channing Tatum's Duke to take on their mortal enemy COBRA, who have infiltrated the government.

TRANCE (15):

James McAvoy returns for his second thriller in three weeks – starring in director Danny Boyle's latest attempt to add to his burgeoning CV of masterpieces.

He stars as a fine art auctioneer who teams up with a criminal gang to steal a painting worth millions of dollars – only to forget where he hid it after taking a blow to the head. Co-stars Rosario Dawson (Sin City).

THE HOST (12A):

The Twilight Saga scribe Stephenie Meyer converts another novel to the big-screen for another romance/adventure.

When an unseen enemy threatens mankind by inhabiting human bodies and erasing their memories, Melanie (Saoirse Ronan, The Lovely Bones) seems to hold the key to fighting this alien invader – and will risk everything to protect the ones she loves.

FINDING NEMO 3D (U):

After Monsters Inc received the 3D treatment in January, Nemo and co are the latest to get taken to another dimension with this Disney re-release. To be fair, it is arguably one of the most appropriate Pixar films to get the upgrade, with its spectacular sea-setting. . . and of course, Bruce the shark. It's just astonishing it's already ten years since the little clownfish got lost first time round.

Hoo hosts celebration for Mansion

ON Saturday, April 20 there will be an official launch of a book on Luton Hoo as part of the celebrations to mark the Mansion's 5th anniversary as a luxury hotel.

A Champagne and canapé reception will be followed by a four-course dinner created by Luton Hoo's Executive Chef Kevin Clark to commemorate the milestone.

The guest speaker at the event will be author and historian Peter Pugh who has written the specially commissioned book exploring the fascinating story of the 18th century Mansion and 1,064-acre estate that is now Luton Hoo Hotel, Golf & Spa.

Every couple attending the evening will receive a complimentary copy of the book, which normally retails for £35.

The anniversary evening is priced at £79 per person and the menu includes a goat's cheese appetiser, gin and tonic sorbet, slow-cooked belly of pork main course and a trio of apple dessert.

For reservations call 01582 734437 or visit www.lutonhoo.co.uk.

SPANISH SENSE

SEAT's Alhambra is a large, 7-seater Galaxy-sized MPV that has value, technology, practicality and sheer cleverness on its side. If you're browsing in this sector and this car isn't your shopping list, then it should be. Here, we check out the most popular 2.0 TDI 140PS diesel variant.

Inside, there's plenty of versatility in all models thanks to the Easy-Fold seating system. You needed a MENSA IQ and the strength of a Ukrainian shot putter to maximise the luggage capacity of the old Alhambra, as the seats needed to be folded, unclipped from their mounts and lifted out. Now both rows of rear seats can tumble down beneath the floor with a minimum of fuss. The boot capacity isn't huge with seven people inside but there's as much as 1,167-litres with five occupants and up to 2,297-litres when you travel two-up, a figure that can be extended still further by folding the front passenger seat flat, allowing nearly three metres of load length.

If you're carrying people rather than packages, entry is now by optionally electrical sliding doors (so your kids won't re-sculpture the bodywork of adjacent cars any more as they throw themselves out into the supermarket carpark) and access to the third row (which is where my three always want to sit) is also made easier by the Easy Entry function through which the outer seats in the second row tilt and slide forward in a single motion. Once in these rearmost chairs, kids will be delighted to find that they sit a little higher than those ahead, while their parents will discover that this is one of those unusual things: a 7-seater that seven fully-sized adults can actually fit into.

CROWDED HOUSE: Players jostle for position during the Hatters' 2-2 draw at Cambridge United which saw goals from Jon Shaw and Solomon Taiwo

THE relatively local meetings between Cambridge United and Luton are not usually dull affairs, with seven goals in two previous league and cup games this season, and so it proved again as they shared an enthralling draw at the Abbey Stadium.

Three goals in 12 second-half minutes set the scene for a fast-paced finale as Jon Shaw and a debut goal from the penalty spot for Solomon Taiwo ensured Town remain in the top ten.

United's top scorer Tom Elliott could have snatched it late on but a point apiece was a fair reward for both sides.

While action on the pitch this week has been restricted due to poor weather, with last Tuesday's visit of Ebbsfleet quashed by snow, the major talking points have certainly been made behind-the-scenes at Kenilworth Road.

With just eight games remaining and already an eye on next season, Luton boss John Still has wielded the axe, with several high-profile departures.

Last season's top scorer Stuart Fleetwood, giant Hungarian Janos Kovacs and Scott Neilson will all leave Town in the summer while Alasan Ann and James Dance have also been shown the door, with Arnaud Mendy thrust on to the transfer list.

The line-up for this clash was a dip into the future for Town with none of the six aforementioned Hatters involved at the Abbey Stadium. Steve McNulty continued as captain for the injured Ronnie Henry and top scorer Andre Gray returned up top to partner Jon Shaw in attack.

Despite Luton having finished ten points clear of the U's in the league last season, a win for the hosts would have seen them clamber above Town and into the top ten, and they looked the deadlier of the outset.

A Harrison Dunk blast from 16 yards was blocked before it could trouble Mark Tyler, while Tom Shaw's 14th-minute half volley from just outside the box required a comfortable grasp by the Hatters' shot-stopper.

Shaw was already looking to be a thorn in the Luton side and but for the last-ditch intervention of Jake Goodman in the 17th minute, he would have opened the scoring.

However, Town's resistance against the U's and the dangerous midfielder lasted just three minutes.

After dithering defending on the edge of their own box, the ball landed at the feet of Shaw who drilled it through a crowd of players and past the helpless Tyler at his far post.

Having looked second-best for much of the

Luton claim big win at Rochford Hundred

LOCAL RUGBY

LUTON Rugby travelled to Rochford Hundred who were fighting for survival, but they showed them no mercy as they ran out 42-10 winners, relegating the Essex side and improving on the 43-22 scoreline from the reverse fixture earlier in the season at Newlands Road.

"We've come on a lot as a group of players since the first part of the season," said backs coach Nick Rhodes. "To come away from home and score six tries is always nice, but particularly pleasing is the way in which we won. We executed our plan to the letter."

Rik Hobbs was in inspired form, kicking all six conversions offered to him and claiming a try of his own.

"He [Hobbs] was incredible, and a product of our very own youth system," said Rhodes on the 20-year-old. "He kicked everything perfectly. He was outstanding, but so was Marc Tindall."

"Marc was perhaps my man of the match, he was excellent. We brought him in from the seconds and he did everything we asked of him, and more. He epitomises everything good about Luton Rugby."

Adding to Hobbs' 17 points this week were Steven Ellis, who scored twice, Chris Davies, Matt Yang and David Brennan.

With three league games and an East Midlands cup final to play this term, Luton are keen to maintain their competitive edge, not least because they need to stay focused on that final at Goldington Road, Bedford, against Amptill RUFC, on May 8.

The game has been rescheduled to be played at the end of the season.

"We are still targeting a third place finish," said Rhodes.

"We know we can't be promoted or relegated, now, but we are not going to let this season peter out. We will play every competitive minute to the best of our ability."

Amptill are flying high in National Midlands Three, where they face Sutton Coldfield next weekend, which may effectively be the title decider.

They have won 19 games, so Luton will need to be at their competitive best if they are to conquer an ambitious Amptill side and win the silverware.

ON TARGET: Jon Shaw heads home for the Hatters' first.

opening 25 minutes, their response to falling a goal behind was reassuring.

Winger Dave Martin was twice denied by Nicholas Pope, first from a drifting left-foot effort from 25 yards and then moments later from point-blank range as the visitors looked to re-establish parity.

Luton last tasted defeat at the Abbey Stadium back in 2000, that day on the end of a slender 2-1 loss, and they continued to press for the equaliser, as the earlier jubilant home faithful fell silent.

Taiwo should have made more of space on the edge of the United box but smashed high and wide and Jake Howells was unlucky to not pick out a team-mate with a tantalising cross as Cambridge hung on to their advantage into the break.

A brief spell of Cambridge pressure at the start of the second phase looked to be turning the tide back in their favour.

However, Luton's positive work from the first half finally paid dividends in the 53rd minute.

Jon Shaw, who found the net in Town's 2-0 FA Cup victory at the Abbey back in October nodded home from 12 yards after a superb retrieval and cross from the excellent Martin.

From there the game exploded into life.

The arrival of forward Nathan Blissett in place of the quiet Sam Smith within a minute bore fruit as he headed in at a corner on the hour.

Cambridge may have thought they were on the verge of registering their first home win in six attempts but just three minutes later Luton had carved a further opening.

Gray was chopped down by 'keeper Pope just inside the U's box and Taiwo calmly stepped up and stroked home to level the intriguing contest once more.

Both sides' back-lines unsurprisingly looked fragile as the game entered the final quarter.

Dunk should have punished the Hatters but saw his close-range shot blocked vitally by Tyler, while at the other end Ainge was thwarted from 12 yards by Pope with a smart save.

Elliott's crashing turn and shot could have grabbed the three points but it sailed over the bar and proved the final meaningful action of a whirlwind encounter.

KICKBOXING

DOUBLING UP: Andrew Tate of Luton's Storm Gym has bagged a second world title

Tate claims second title

ANDREW Tate has become a two time champion of the world after victory over rival Vincent Petitjean in a bout for the 84.6kg ISKA title.

Fighting out of Storm Gym in Luton, Tate demonstrated superior skill and power throughout the battle against his French opponent to claim glory.

Tate has now won world titles in two different weight divisions after previously triumphing at 81.4kg as well.

There was some bad blood between himself and Petitjean when he was defeated by the same opponent two years ago after suffering a broken hand in the first round.

But it was completely different second time around in Chateaufort as Tate 'dismantled' his opponent over 12 rounds below.

Next up for the kickboxer is the ENFUSION at the O2 Arena (Indigo) where he fights Marino Schouten from Holland under K1 rules.

Town title favourites after Roache double

LOCAL FOOTBALL

DUNSTABLE Town continued their march towards promotion from the Spartan South Midlands league with a 4-0 victory against Colney Heath at Creasey Park.

Unbeaten Town started frantically against mid-table opponents. Nathan Frater hit the bar and there were two penalty appeals turned down before Frater opened the scoring on 25 minutes.

Top scorer Lee Roache scored a fine second on 38 minutes, picking up a pass from Nick Jackson before firing home in style.

It remained 2-0 until the 86th minute when Roache scored his 49th goal of the season and BJ Christie added a fourth a minute later.

AFC Dunstable couldn't do Town any favours as they fell to a 4-2 defeat at third placed Oxhey Jets.

AFC led 2-1 at half time through a Craig Butler penalty and a Jay Blackett header but they couldn't hold out against tough opponents.

Sloppy second half defending allowed Lewis Putman to complete a hat-trick for a win which keeps Oxhey mathematically in touch with Dunstable Town.

Barton Rovers, after a 2-2 draw against Slough in midweek, put in another impressive performance in a 3-1 win at home against Guildford Town in the Evostik Division One Central Division.

Rhys Hoeness opened the scoring just before half time and Rovers were 2-0 up when Jermaine Hall scored from the penalty spot early in the second half.

Play-off chasing Guildford pulled a goal back midway through the second half but man of the match Hoeness made the points safe with a second goal on 70 minutes.

"It was one of our better performances of the season," Barton manager Dan Kenney said.

"We could, maybe should have beaten Slough on Thursday and another good performance today means we can build on this and aim for a top half finish."

Still planning to 'tinker' for clash with Harriers

SPOT ON: Solomon Taiwo scores a penalty against Cambridge yesterday

FOOTBALL

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

HATTERS boss John Still has promised to "tinker" with his side for tomorrow's clash with league leaders Kidderminster Harriers after a disappointing display yesterday.

Luton salvaged a point at Cambridge United by "working our socks off" but Still will be looking for a big improvement if he is to secure only his second home win since arriving from Dagenham and Redbridge.

"I will be looking to tinker again for Monday for sure," said Still.

"After today, though, we will have a re-think about our selection because I am positive they could have offered more.

"We have to be conscious of the league positions for all clubs though.

"We will not put out a side that we do not think is competitive because that is unfair on the teams going for promotion and the league."

A penalty from Solomon Taiwo rescued Hatters' unbeaten away record since Still arrived in late February.

Jon Shaw had earlier cancelled out his Cambridge namesake's opener.

But the entertaining 2-2 draw was not enough to impress Still.

In particular Luton's mid-field quartet of David Martin, goal-scorer Taiwo, Jonathan Smith and Jake Howells bore the brunt of the disgruntled manager's frustration.

"I think the all-round passing, creativity and movement of our midfield was poor," said Still.

"The front two were devoid of service and at times we did not show that much quality.

"The reason we got a result though is because everyone worked their socks off.

"Did we play very well? No I don't think so. Solomon's saving grace was that he tucked away that penalty.

"Dave Martin played all right but the other three just were not at it."

Still's frustration comes just two days after releasing the names of five first-team players – including Janos Kovacs and Stuart Fleetwood – that would not have their contracts renewed.

Arnaud Mendy was also transfer-listed and the Hatters boss has a desire to make further additions when the time is right.

"We have a fantastic group of lads here that work hard but the facts told me when I came here we were ninth in the league," said Still.

"We want to be better than that and to be better than that we have to make some changes and that is the way it is. These are my decisions and I stand by them."

Town have now picked up six points from four away outings but Still believes a third consecutive point on their travels masked an average display.
